National Day of Remembrance and Action on Violence Against Women

Date and Time: Friday, December 6 6:00 am - 11:55 pm

It has been over 30 years since the murder of 14 young women at Polytechnique Montréal (December 6, 1989). This act of violent misogyny shook our country and led Parliament to designate December 6 as The National Day of Remembrance and Action on Violence Against Women.

Flags at Town Hall will be flown at half-mast today to remember those who have experienced gender-based violence and and who we have lost their lives to it.
